Father Norman Anthony DuKette Scholarship

Established by the Rachor Family Foundation, Ltd.

This scholarship was established in 2014 by the Rachor Family Foundation, Ltd. in recognition of Father Norman Anthony DuKette.

Christ the King Parish was founded in 1929 by Father Norman DuKette, the first black priest in the Diocese of Lansing. From its beginning the parish served the African American community while welcoming and embracing all peoples. DuKette Catholic School was named in honor of Father DuKette. He faithfully served the Flint community for more than 50 years until his death in 1980. His love for children inspired the ministry of the school.

Norman Anthony DuKette was born November 11, 1890 in Washington D.C. He was the 18th child among 27 siblings. His father was a government worker who, after the family moved to Detroit, sometimes leased horses and carts to the city for hauling. He also ran a grocery store to feed his large family. DuKette's mother was a domestic cook who took in sewing to supplement their meager income. While in Detroit, Norman DuKette met Rev. Joseph C. Wuest of Old St. Mary's Parish. He volunteered his services and assisted in organizing the city's first black mission, St. Peter Claver. Those were the first seeds of his vocation and call to serve as a priest. Encouraged by Rev. Wuest to pursue seminary studies Norman DuKette applied for the priesthood in the Roman Catholic Church. He became the first black student at Loras Academy and College in Dubuque Iowa from which he graduated in 1922.
